APPLICATION FOR RESIDENTIAL HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION INSTRUCTIONS

General Residential Homestead Exemptions. You may only apply for residence homestead exemptions on one property in a tax year. Fill out the other side of this application completely. To qualify for homestead exemptions, you must own and reside in your home on January 1 of the tax year. If you temporarily move away from your home, you still can qualify for an exemption if you don't establish another principal residence and you intend to return in a period of less than two (2) years. Homeowners in military service or in a facility providing services related to health, infirmity or aging may exceed the two-year period. If you have trouble filling out this form, call the appraisal district. A list of taxing units and the exemptions they offer is listed below or attached to this application.

Over-65 or Disability Exemptions. You may receive over-65 or disability homestead exemptions immediately upon qualification for the exemption(s). You must apply before the first anniversary of your qualification date to receive the exemption(s) in that tax year. For example, if you turn 65 or are disabled on June 1 of the current year, you have until May 31 of the next year to apply for the current tax year's over-65 or disability exemption(s). This special provision only applies to over-65 or disability exemptions and not to other exemptions for which you may apply.

Tax Limitations. The over-65 or disability exemption for school taxes includes a school tax limitation, or ceiling. Other types of taxing units – county, city, or junior college – have the option to grant a tax limitation on homesteads of homeowners disabled or 65 years of age or older. You may transfer the same percentage of school taxes paid to another qualified homestead in the state. If the county, city or junior college grants the limitation, you may transfer the same percentage of taxes paid to another qualified homestead within that same taxing unit.

Surviving Spouse Age 55 or Older. Over 65: You qualify for an extension of this exemption if (1) you are 55 years of age or older on the date your spouse died and (2) your deceased spouse was receiving the over-65 exemptions on this residence homestead or would have applied and qualified for the exemption in the year of the spouse's death. You will not receive the school tax limitation for the over-65 exemption unless your spouse died on or after December 1, 1987. Disabled: While you would not qualify for a disability exemption claimed by your deceased spouse, you will be entitled to continue the school tax limitation if your spouse died on or after January 1, 2003.

Filing Deadlines. File this application between January 1 and no later than April 30. You may file a late homestead exemption application if you file it no later than one year after the date taxes become delinquent. See the over-65 or disability exemptions section above for more on late filing.

Re-filing. If the chief appraiser grants the exemptions, you do not need to reapply annually. You must reapply, however, if the chief appraiser requires you to do so by sending you a new application asking you to reapply. You must notify the chief appraiser in writing if and when your right to any exemption ends or your qualifications change. You must reapply if you qualify for additional exemptions based on age or disability in the future.

Step 1. Owner's name and address. Enter the following information:

- Name of the owner completing this application.
- This owner's current mailing address and phone number.
- Driver's license number, personal identification number, or Social Security number of this owner (kept confidential).
- Percentage of ownership by this owner.
- This owner's birth date.
- Names of other owners and their percentage of ownership. Attach additional sheets if needed.

Step 2. Describe the property. Enter the information requested. Attach the mobile home statement of ownership and location, or sales contract. Enter, if you wish, the number of acres used for residential purposes.

Step 3. Check exemptions that apply to you. Complete by checking the boxes that apply. If you check the disability exemption, attach documents verifying your disability. If a surviving spouse age 55 or older, enter the information requested. The appraisal district may request documents on date of spouse's death.

Step 4. Answer if applies. If the property is cooperative housing, complete Step 4.

Step 5. Check if late. If you were eligible for an exemption last year, check the box in Step 5 for late filing and enter the prior tax year.

Step 6. Sign and date the application. You must sign and date this application. Making false statements on your exemption application is a criminal offense.

(Appraisal District: Attach a page listing those exemptions; or, state: If you would like to know the homestead exemptions offered by your taxing units, call the _____ Appraisal District at _____.)
